KUNSTAREAL MUNICH

Mission Statement	Kunstareal Munich 5,000 years of culture history Art x culture x knowledge = Experience3 The Kunstareal Munich lies right in the heart of Munich, and with its museums, cultural institutions and universities it is one of Europe's most important culture locations. On an area of 500 x 500 meters, right in the busy district of Maxvorstadt, visitors will find a unique combination of art, culture, knowledge and learning. On a densely-knit space, located here are a total of 31 institutions (of which 18 are museum collections), six universities, numerous cultural institutes and libraries, plus more than 40 galleries. The Kunstareal boasts a store of knowledge and learning gathered over more than 5,000 years, and offers a structural and cultural heritage of 200 years of lively culture policy. The cultural tours through the Kunstareal illustrate countless architectural and cultural highlights. The renowned Bavarian State Painting Collections (Bayerische Staatsgemäldesammlungen) interconnect through four museums: the Alte Pinakothek, the Neue Pinakothek, the Pinakothek der Moderne, and the Museum Brandhorst. These enthrall interested visitors and experts alike with their offering of the most splendid works of art, from the Late Middle Ages to the present day. The Glyptothek and the Academy of Fine Arts or the impressive new building of the State Museum of Egyptian Art are all part of the Kunstareal, as are the science institutions with the Paleontological Museum, the Haus der Kristalle, and the Nazi Documentation Center opened in 2015. The latter is the central point of learning about the history of National Socialism. Embedded in the lively surroundings of Maxvorstadt with its trendy street cafés and restaurants, beautiful green areas, as well as historical and landmarked gardens, a visit to Munich's Kunstareal is an unforgettable experience for all – big, small, old, young, and not just culture aficionados!
