BUCHHEIM MUSEUM

Mission Statement	Buchheim Museum is home to the collection of expressionist art of Lothar-Günther Buchheim – the author of “Das Boot”. Since 2017 it also houses the collection of Hermann Gerlinger, which is the largest private collection of works by “Brücke-painters”, such as Ernst Ludwig Kirchner, Erich Heckel and Karl Schmidt-Rottluff, in Southern Germany. The museum inspires its visitors with special exhibitions about the masters of modernity and excites children with its popular wonderland, with a mini circus, an underwater BMW and a painted helicopter. Aside from the expressionist works, the Buchheim Museum also includes the “Wiesenzpfade der Kunst” – a collection of curiosities from all over the world.
Location	The building by Olympia-architect Günther Behnisch, located in a wonderful pre-alpine landscape, and right at the shore of Lake Starnberg, is more than just a museum: It’s an experience for all senses! Its terraces and the romantic museum-park, for example, are perfect for a picnic.
